Training at drama school (2011-2014) for three years as an actor has given me key skills in storytelling, utilising my voice and understanding the importance/needs of a main role/supporting artist.

I've written and directed a variety of short films, one of which was Channel 4 commissioned.

My training at NFTS (2019-2020) as an assistant director has enhanced my knowledge of production and further developed my ability to communicate concisely, under pressure and in large teams.
